dent, although the Cleveland democrats are endeavoring to secure his withdrawal in favor of Senator Vilas. General Buckner and Governor Howe, are the most conspicuous candidates for the vice presidency.

It has been unanimously agreed to endorse President Cleveland's administration and the gold standard. The Chicago platform will be strongly condemned, but there is a great diversity of opinion regarding the introduction of new issues.

Favor Black in Bragg's Place.

golden rod and gold emblems. As the prominent men enter, they are enthusiastically received.

It is said that a decided effort is being made to substitute the name of General John C. Black of Illinois, for that of General Bragg of Wisconsin, and thus make the ticket Black and Buckner, but without pronounced success. Bragg is a strong candidate.

It is believed that the proposition to adopt resolutions favoring legislation which will permit an income tax, will be voted down. The convention was called to order by General Palmer at 12:37 p. m. Palm r remarked that he had the honor to preside, for a time, over the only national democratic convention of 1896, caused great cheering.

The roll of states was called at 12:35 and most of them were represented. Montana reports a unanimous delegation—of one. Nevada has no representative. New York reports seventy-two delegates, and seventy-two alternates, amid great cheering. Wisconsin reports a full delegation "all democrats" and applause greets the announcement. The call showed that forty-one states were represented.

Old Rules Adopted.

The convention is to be governed by the rules of the convention of 1892. The name of Mr. Flower, as temporary chairman, was received with great applause. Over 350 delegates are present with their alternates.

"Your presence here," said Chairman Flower "shows the nature of the true democrats as against the persons who favor populism and anarchy. We are here because we love the democratic party, and because we love our country." [Great cheering.]

When Mr. Flower spoke of President Cleveland as "the man they tried to vilify at Chicago" the cheering was renewed and the outburst lasted some time.

Silver Only a Cloak.

"The sentiment," he continued, "in favor of free silver coinage, is only a cloak for Bryan and those behind him for more revolutionary measures against the law and prosperity of the country. Bryan is trying to array classes against other classes, or as he (Bryan) puts it, the masses against the classes. If argument of 'political quacks' that remonetization of silver would advance the price of farm products is true, it would advance also the price of all the farmer would have to purchase, so he would be no better off. The owner of gold in 1873 got double the interest for it that he does now. The laborer is better off in times of falling prices than when they are advancing, as labor is always last to go up while his living expenses are at once increased."

When Mr. Flower closed, the convention took a recess until 4 o'clock.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 2.—Anti-silver democrats meet here at noon today in national convention and begin the formal repudiation of the Bryan-Sewall ticket and the Chicago platform. This work will not be finished inside of two days, and the convention may run over into the third.

The contest between the friends of President Cleveland and the anti-administration men wages fiercely. Henry Watterson has undoubtedly got the worst of the fight. He lost ground, and some of the desertions were in delegations which were counted the strongest supporters of the Kentucky editor. Now the administration men have picked up Gen. Bragg and pitted him against Henry Watterson. All of the other candidates have been temporarily withdrawn.

To-day the convention is slated to complete its temporary organization, and then take a recess. During this adjournment the Cleveland men will concentrate their forces on Bragg and force the friends of Mr. Watterson to cease advocating his nomination. Then it is intended to produce the real administration candidate and use him as the battering ram to knock Bragg out of his preferred position. William D. Bynum is said to be the man for whom the administration men have decided to make the final stand, which is expected to bring to him the nomination.

John C. Black, lately nominated for governor by the anti-silver democrats of Illinois, was brought out as a presidential candidate, and it was the deliberate opinion of many of the administration men that he would set the prairies of Illinois afire with enthusiasm if he headed the national ticket.

The eastern delegates, who are now largely represented, show a disposition to allow the southern and western states to name the ticket, but when it comes to making the platform they demand that they be allowed their say.

The Cleveland men now have no less than seven candidates—Black, Palmer, Morton, Herbert, Vilas, Bynum and Gray. Some have already declined the nomination and the supporters of Gen. Bragg and Henry Watterson are trying to make it easy for the others to do likewise. The Bragg and Watterson men claim that their greatest hope lies in the fact that the administration men are divided as to candidates, although they admit that Mr. Cleveland has such a skillful machine here that it will be almost possible for it to manufacture order out of chaos in a few conferences.

The arrival of Gen. S. B. Buckner gave the Bragg men a big boost. The general's state instructed for his nomination for the vice-presidency, and the Bragg and Buckner slate is the popular one. The friends of this slate say that the old confederate general has a big following in the south and that his nomination would serve to all intents and purposes the same as that of Watterson, while the name of Bragg would be of great assistance to the anti-silver men in the northern tier of states.

One of the rumors that was current in the hotel corridors was that Henry Watterson had pulled out of the race. It is said that one of his supporters has a cablegram from him absolutely declining the nomination, which also says that he has never been a candidate, and that he did not know what his friends on this side of the water were doing. This report could not be confirmed, but the delegates keep on talking about it.

The platform-makers are active. The eastern men are demanding that they be allowed to have the words "gold standard" in the financial plank, and there promises to be the same flurry over this matter that there was in the

THIS HIGH POSITION.

Clarkson Said to Be Favorite With the Illinois Veterans—General Hobson of Kentucky Talked Of—Preparations for the Parade—The Days Work At the Encampment.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 2.—The men in blue, with badges and brass buttons, remembered one of the arts of war Tuesday, and tramped. It was reunion day, and every veteran was looking for some of the "boys" who used to touch elbows in the ranks with him.

The last of the delegations have arrived, as to-day is the real beginning of the thirtieth Grand Army encampment. To parade is considered every veteran's pride and duty, and the hopeful ones are counting on 30,000 in line when the forward order is given.

The Illinois veterans found themselves at once caught in the whirl of talk which is flooding headquarters in the fight for the office of commander-in-chief. A canvass of the delegation on the personal preferences of the delegates would probably give Clarkson of Omaha a large majority. The Illinois delegation favors a fight for the western man on general principles. They do not see why the west should not have the commander-in-chief again if they can get the votes. The eastern men are still in their complicated tangle, although the possibility of uniting on Admiral Meade is growing strong.

Iowa appears to have taken a stand against Clarkson by putting forward Judge Joshua Given of Sioux City. Meanwhile a dark horse of formidable dimensions is springing up in Kentucky. The name of Gen. E. H. Hobson of Greensburg is put forward very strongly, and the Meade people said that if the east could not agree on any one candidate, Hobson would have a splendid chance for the eastern vote and make a great race for the office. He is looked upon as a compromise candidate and will be counted in the fight from now on. Few of the delegations have had their meetings yet and the real sentiment cannot be accurately determined.

The spectacular event of Tuesday, and the first of the encampment, was the parade of the Naval Veterans' union. The Ex-Prisoners of War and the Sons of Veterans participated, all escorted by a regiment of regulars from Fort Snelling.

Buffalo will probably secure the national encampment for 1897. That seems to be conceded by even the enemies of the proposition, and Denver, which started in to make the fight, has retired this early, and will give its entire support to Buffalo on condition that Buffalo and its backers will support Denver for the encampment of 1898. Nashville, Cincinnati and Chicago were also bidders for the encampment, but all three withdrew from the race.

The union of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief Corps will be under consideration. From the well-known views of the members of this former organization it is understood that the effort of union will be attended by no great success, since they are unwilling to give up their distinctive character and become merged into the greater body.

C. F. Sheriff, of Pittsburgh, was elected president of the ex-prisoners of war. He was vice-president last year.

APPEAL TO POPULISTS.

Chairman Taubeneck Sends Out a Circular Asking All to Stand Fast.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 2.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the people's party state central committee held here Tuesday a circular letter was prepared and will be sent out all over the state. It says in part:

"There appears to be a misapprehension on the part of some of our voters regarding the ticket to be voted in November. Many have been told by the republicans that we will have no ticket of our own, and others, of the people's party, are thinking and saying the same. The truth is, our ticket will appear upon the official ballot as separate and distinct as though there had been no coalition. Our ticket will be headed, 'People's Party,' and will be voted as such, not only by our own voters, but by thousands of democrats and free-silver republicans. Our party has not dissolved, nor is it in danger of dissolution. Our organization is more thorough and complete than ever before in the history of the people's party. We trust each one receiving this letter will be particular to disabuse the minds of our people of the error into which some of them appear to have fallen. Very truly,

H. E. Taubeneck,

Chairman Executive Committee."

Don't Want an International Agreement.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 2.—A general canvass of the delegates on the question of including a declaration in favor of bimetalism by international agreement in the platform shows an apparently large sentiment against any allusion to an international agreement. The majority favor a straight declaration for the maintenance of the gold standard, but many of them desire it to be included in a declaration in favor of the largest use of silver consistent with the maintenance of the parity with gold.

MR. BRYAN SPEAKS
AT OHIO'S CAPITALTHIRTY THOUSAND PEOPLE
LISTEN TO HIM.

Crowd Is So Enormous that It Has to Be Addressed in Sections—Throngs Curious to See the Man They Will Not Vote For—Political News.

Columbus, O., Sept. 2.—The free-silver campaign in Ohio attained its high-water mark in Cleveland, Tuesday night, but the outpouring of people to see and hear the democratic presidential candidate at the state capital was greater, in proportion to the size of the city, than that in the northern metropolis had been. Mr. Bryan had the state capital grounds for his forum, and the memory of local politicians contains no such demonstration as the one in which he played the star part.

A roofed and flag-draped platform faced the eastern front of the capitol building, and as Mr. Bryan looked down from its height, twenty feet above the plain of faces, he saw the steps and terraces packed in solid rows, with the gloomy stone wall for the background, while about the other three sides of the stage, across the lawn of several acres to the street beyond, stood regiments of which an accurate estimate was an impossibility, and which a careful guess would place at 30,000.

On account of the size of his audience, Mr. Bryan adopted a novel method of speaking, talking to sections of the crowd alternately from each of the four sides of the platform. Even then not more than a tenth of the people could hear him. He was introduced by Allen G. Thurman, son of the "Old Roman," who has been fighting for free silver in Ohio for several years, and after the candidate's speech the democratic nominee for congress in the Columbus district, John J. Lentz, addressed the remainder of the crowd.

Silver Clubs Forming in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 2.—Secretary Carr of the democratic state committee said Tuesday that he was confident that 300 silver clubs have been organized already in Iowa. The work so far, he declares, has been spontaneous. No effort to form them has been made by the state committee, but commencing to-day C. E. Crisman will have charge of the club bureau, and will organize clubs all over the state. It is possible that a state meeting of club leaders will be held in Des Moines in a short time. Ex-Congressman Walt H. Butler says the situation throughout the state is far more encouraging to the silver men than he had believed. Gen. Weaver, in an interview, places Bryan's majority in Iowa at 30,000.

Congressman Towne at Aurora.

Aurora, Ill., Sept. 2.—The democratic campaign was opened in Aurora Tuesday evening by Congressman Charles A. Towne of Minnesota, who addressed one of the largest political meetings ever assembled here. Mr. Towne refused a renomination for congress by the republican party to identify himself with the free-silver cause, and the meeting he addressed was under the auspices of the Aurora Bimetallic league. Mr. Towne spoke for over two hours, his wonderful oratorical abilities meeting continuous applause.

Weaver Speaks at Princeton, Ill.

Princeton, Ill., Sept. 2.—Gen. James B. Weaver of Iowa addressed a democratic meeting in the public square here to-day. He spoke in behalf of free-silver coinage. About 1,500 people were present.

Suffering at Ontonagon, Mich.

Calumet, Mich., Sept. 2.—So distressing has become the condition of the fire sufferers in Ontonagon that they have nearly returned to a condition of barbarism. The food contributed is away below the demand, and the strong and able-bodied fight back the weak and take sustenance for themselves, leaving the weaker to starve. Tuesday a squad of company D, Fifth regiment, left for the fire district to protect the supplies against the raids of the half-crazed sufferers. Gov. Rich was appealed to, and will send the entire state militia in the upper peninsula to guard the food if necessary.

Helpless Children in Peril.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 2.—At 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the Institution for the Feeble-Minded, located on a high hill a mile from the center of the city, took fire. It contained 129 helpless children. They were removed from the building with the greatest difficulty, owing to the rapid spread of the flames. The institute building cost $55,000. It was insured for $25,000. The children were taken to the machine and carpenter shops, where they were made as comfortable as possible. Many of them went into spasms on account of fright. They will be sent to their homes until the institute is rebuilt.

Gold Mine in Indiana.

Portland, Ind., Sept. 2.—A practical miner from the west and two men from Camden have leased the Arthur stone quarry, two miles west of this city. They have erected a small smelter and are mining for gold. Silver has been found also.

ELECT A PRESIDENT.

Ira C. Copley Head of Illinois League of Republican Clubs.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 2.—The Illinois League of Republican Clubs spent nearly the entire afternoon Tuesday wrangling over the report of the committee on credentials. Finally it became necessary to take an adjournment to 8 o'clock to give the committee time to make up a roll of the clubs in attendance.

The committee on resolutions reported, indorsing the national and state platforms, the national and state tickets and pledging a big majority for the republican ticket this fall. Telegrams were sent to McKinley and Hobart, extending the greetings of the Illinois league and pledging the state for them. Thanks were returned the Peoria people for their hospitality.

The committee on rules reported in favor of the adoption of the Iowa plan, and the election by the executive committee of a treasurer, and the collection of an annual fee from the club members of the league. Both reports were adopted, as well as a motion to send a telegram to John R. Tanner expressing greetings.

When nominations for president were declared in order, W. R. Payne of Chicago presented the name of Ora E. Chapin of that city. Major S. S. Ballou of the Eighth district named Ira C. Copley, and J. B. Irwin of the Fourteenth presented President C. W. Raymond. Mr. Chapin's name was withdrawn when it was evident that Mr. Copley was to be elected on the first ballot, and when Piatt county was reached John Lynch of Olney withdrew the name of Mr. Raymond and moved to make the nomination of Mr. Copley unanimous. John R. Parker, Judge Richard Yates, John Lynch, C. W. Raymond and Ora Chapin were appointed a committee of five to escort Mr. Copley to the chair. He thanked the delegates. The election of a secretary and assistant secretary was left with the new executive committee.

President Copley then introduced Gov. Hastings of Pennsylvania as the principal speaker of the evening. After Gov. Hastings, Congressman McCleary of Minnesota spoke, and the convention adjourned.

CHANG HAS A BUSY DAY.

Chinese Statesman Receives All Kinds of Visitors.

New York, Sept. 2.—Li Hung Chang awoke Tuesday with a real American cold, which worried him greatly. Ex-Secretary Foster was one of his first callers. The members of the Presbyterian board of missions called on the viceroy early. He received visitors in a great arm chair in the parlor of the first floor, surrounded by his suite.

Li Hung Chang's reply to the lengthy address of the missionaries was full of practical and thoughtful utterances. He complimented the missionaries for their good work in China, likened Christianity and confucianism, and expressed his gratitude for their checking the opium evil use. After the audience with the missionaries Li Hung Chang received Collis P. Huntington. Li asked his usual questions as to the age and wealth of his visitor, and if he didn't want to invest money in China. In the afternoon he lunched at the Merchants' club, then "did" Chinatown.

HAS DONE GOOD WORK.

Secretary Smith's Administration of the Interior Department Was Admirable.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Secretary Hoke Smith has closed his administration of the affairs of the interior department and retired from the cabinet. When ex-Gov. Francis will arrive from Missouri and take the oath of office is not yet definitely known, but he is expected to come before the end of the week.

The record of the department for volume of work performed during the past three and a half years is probably ahead of any period of its history. Secretary Smith has enforced the strictest civil service rules.

At the beginning of this administration there were pending 4,600 appeals from the pension office undisposed of in the secretary's office. The current work has been kept up and these accumulated cases disposed of.

Woodley in Danger by Fire.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The woods north of President Cleveland's country home at Woodley are on fire. Already about six acres of brush have been burned over. Strenuous efforts are being made to extinguish the fire. It is feared that if a wind should spring up the president's house, as well as several of the other handsome residences in the neighborhood, will be endangered.

Gen. Black's Position.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—If the gold democratic convention at Indianapolis places an independent presidential ticket in the field Gen. John C. Black will decline to accept the nomination for governor of Illinois, given him by the state gold convention.

Cockran to Speak at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Bourke Cockran is coming to this city to address a mass-meeting in the Coliseum Saturday, Sept. 12. Mr. Cockran will follow Carl Schurz, who speaks in Central Music hall next Saturday evening. Also, coming so soon after Mr. Bryan, who speaks Labor day, Mr. Cockran will try to refute the free-silver arguments advanced by the democratic candidate.

ALL AIM AT FUSION
IN THE CREAM CITYTHREE STATE CONVENTIONS
AT MILWAUKEE TODAY.

Democratic, Populist, and The American Silver Parties Are in Session—Pops Have a Large Attendance—Central Committee Sanction the Dropping of the Apportionment Suit.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 2.—At the meeting of the democratic state central committee a resolution was passed indorsing the action of Chairman Peck in dropping the gerrymander suits which were intended to test the validity of the apportionment made by the republicans last January.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 2.—Three state conventions are being held in this city to-day, the democratic, the populist and American silver party. The plan is to have a combination ticket, so far as the presidential electors are concerned. The populist convention is more largely attended than any that has heretofore been held in this state. The first state convention of the silver party convened at Lincoln hall, and Rublee A. Cole of this city is the chairman.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

Republicans Carry the State by a Big Majority.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—Vermont has gone republican by a big majority. At midnight Tuesday it was certain that the plurality for Josiah Grout, the candidate for governor, would be 35,000, and if the percentage of republican gain keeps up in the towns which are yet to be heard from the republican candidate will be almost 40,000 ahead of his democratic opponent, Dr. J. Henry Jackson.

The whole republican state ticket is elected, and both congressmen, H. Henry Powers of Morristown and William M. Grout, a brother of the successful candidate for governor, are returned to Washington. The senate will be almost, if not unanimously, republican, and the democratic members in the lower branch will be few. At midnight 216 towns and cities of the 246 in the state gave Grout 41,434 and Jackson 11,219. The same towns in 1892 gave Fuller 29,839 and Smalley 14,688.

There was no trouble in any part of the state, the election being conducted without disturbance of any kind. The returns from the few towns which have not already been heard from are coming in slowly, and it may be twenty-four hours before the exact plurality is known, but enough is known to satisfy the republicans that the victory is most pronounced.

FOR TURKISH WATERS.

Powerful American Squadron Being Brought Together.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The cruiser Cincinnati, now attached to the North Atlantic squadron, has been ordered to Constantinople. The Minneapolis, which has been lying off Queenstown, has been directed, it is understood, to the same place. The Marblehead and San Francisco, which are already in the Mediterranean, will join these ships, constituting a powerful American squadron in Turkish waters. It is believed that as soon as the warships reach Constantinople United States Minister Terrell will deliver an ultimatum to the porte, which may make his withdrawal to the protection of the ships expedient.

Michigan Bankers' Association.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 2.—The ninth annual convention of the Michigan Bankers' association began Tuesday night with a large attendance. President L. H. Withey read his annual address and was followed by Harvey J. Hollister, who read a paper on "Gold and Silver: Which One or Both?" State Bank Commissioner Sherwood on "John Law and His Financial Scheme," and Charles W. Garfield on "Incidental Responsibility of Bank Officials." The usual committees were announced as the closing feature.

Baron Fava Recalled.

Washington, Sept. 2.—A well-known Italian of this city has received a letter from Rome stating that Baron Fava, ambassador from Italy to the United States, has been recalled. The cause, the writer stated, was a general dissatisfaction with the baron's actions on the part of the Italians in the United States as well as in Italy. Neither Baron Fava nor any member of the embassy could be seen in regard to this report.

Explosion of Blasting Powder.

Alton, Ill., Sept. 2.—A terrific explosion occurred Tuesday morning at East Alton, where 5,000 pounds of blasting powder exploded at the Equitable Powder mills and wrought fearful havoc. The explosion shook the country like an earthquake for miles around; windows were broken all over Alton, which is five miles from the scene of the disaster. Henry Ragus and William Roettgers, who were at work in the presser at the time of the explosion were blown to atoms, and Thomas Keefe was instantly killed by being struck with a heavy timber, which tore his head from his body. All the other employees escaped. The damage to the property was slight.

IS NO HOPE NOW FOR SILVER MEN

Clinton Babbitt Sounds the Whits
Metals' Death Knell.

HIS FIGURES SHOW THAT RE-PUBLICANS WILL GAIN.

Says He "Can Name One Hundred Republicans in Rock County Who Will Vote For Bryan"—Vote of Gold Standard Democrats In This City Alone Will More than Counterbalance the Slump that He Predicts
In the County At Large.

Hon. Clinton Babbitt sounded the death knell of the free silver cause in Rock county, at Milwaukee yesterday, when the Milwaukee Journal man interviewed him. His figures were the first given out by a silverite, and show that the republican plurality in Rock County will be larger than ever this fall. The Journal says:

Clinton Babbitt is the most enthusiastic silver man in town, having voted that way when in congress.

"I can name 100 Rock county republicans," he said, "who will vote for Bryan this year."

When asked if he was a candidate for governor, he said: "I shall leave it to the boys. If they want me, I will make the run of my life, and win for them. If they want somebody else, my coat will come off and I will fight in the ranks and do my best for the candidate of the convention. This is a farmers' year, and the farmers want free coinage of silver and better prices for produce."

Concedes Republican Gains.

Mr. Babbitt's interview, conceding republican victory and republican gains. He "can name one hundred republicans in Rock county who will vote for Bryan," but it will be noticed that he does not do so. But granting that he could, and did name them,
how much would their votes influence the result? Would they constitute a democratic gain?

Not a bit of it.

The one hundred republican votes that Mr. Babbitt says Bryan will get,
will be more than offset by the gold democrats in this city alone, who will cast their ballots against free silver.

Mr. Babbitt is one of the most rabid free silver men in the state, and always sees the "silver lining" to the cloud. When he concedes that the republican ticket will get all but one hundred of the republican votes in Rock county, he voices his honest belief,
even though he does deny the statements of his flamboyant followers, who declare that "nine-tenths of the farmers are for silver."

Mr. Babbitt has dropped the first admission of the weakness of the sixteen-to-one cause in Wisconsin, and he undoubtedly gives the facts as they are. A fluctuation of 100 votes in a county that gave 3,003 plurality at the last election, is a remarkably small one on any issue, and shows how dead
the free silver idea is in this section of the country.

Will Gain 1,000 Votes.

The republican vote for governor
in 1892, in Rock county was 6,017
and the democratic vote for governor in Rock county was 4,251.

The republican vote, for president the same year was 6,052 and the democratic vote for president was 4,231.

These figures show a republican fluctuation of 35 and a democratic fluctuation of 20. This was the year of the "land slide."

In 1894 the democratic vote for governor in Rock county was 3,445.
In 1892 it was 4,251 showing a democratic fluctuation in two years of 806.

So, from the mouth of Rock county's most hopeful silverite, comes the statement that one hundred of the 6,510 republican who voted the republican ticket two years ago
will go to Bryan this fall.

Even so.

In all probability Mr. Babbitt is slightly overestimating the slump to the democratic standard—most politicians over-estimate—but The Gazette is willing to concede that his figures are correct, and that 100 Rock county republicans will vote for free silver.

More than one hundred gold democrats will vote against free silver in this city alone, so that all the honest money votes cast by our "friends the enemy," in Rock county, outside of this city, will be clear gain.

Mr. Babbitt's statement gives us something to figure from. Granting that he knows the strength of the silver movement—and he certainly ought to—The Gazette makes these figures:
Republican plurality in 1894..... 3,002 Republican plurality in 1896 (estimated from Mr. Babbitt's own standard)..... 4,002 Remember the figures, and see—Mr. Babbitt's figures are reliable,—if the republican plurality in the county is not increased just 1,000 votes.

SPECIALS MAKE REGULARS LATE

Rush to St. Paul Plays Hob With the Time Tables

The numerous specials on the Northwestern road bound for the G. A. R. encampment at St. Paul, have hindered regular trains. The St. Paul passenger, due in this city, last evening, at 6:25 o'clock, arrived nearly two hours late, having been delayed in passing different passenger trains along the route. The morning vestibule arrived in the city this morning at 7:45 instead of at 6:25. Both the vestibule and the midnight train pulled into the city, in three sections last night.

WORLD'S FAIR ENGINE WRECKED

The "Christopher Columbus" Wrecked
Near Evanston.

The World's Fair engine, the "Christopher Columbus," owned by the Northwestern road, and frequently seen here while it was used in hauling the vestibule, is now a total wreck, having been the main figure in a smash-up on the Milwaukee division yesterday
noon. The local Northwestern telegraph office received notice yesterday afternoon that the ponderous machine had jumped the track while hauling
the fast Milwaukee passenger near North Evanston, and that Engineer Orwley and Fireman Anderson had been injured. Edward Sweet of Chicago, had a leg broken and Frank Smith of Fond du Lac, who stood near the track, was struck on the head, by a heavy timber, and was badly injured, but will probably recover.

The wreck occurred on a curve at Jackson and Railroad avenues, where the Mayfair freight division branches into the main line. The heavy engine caused the rails to spread, and the engine, mail car, baggage car and a smoker left the track. The engine turned over and settled on its side, but the other cars were not overturned.
Within an hour after the accident a wrecker and a gang of men were on the scene, and the debris was quickly cleared away so that the track could be repaired. At 2 o'clock traffic was resumed, and the remaining cars of the wrecked train were taken to Milwaukee by another engine.

The engine used on the train when the accident occurred, was the old Christopher Columbus engine, which was on exhibition at the World's Fair, and was afterwards purchased by the Northwestern, and numbered 400.
The enormous size of the engine and its weight, is what caused the accident.
The tender was detached from the engine and thrown over the fence into a cornfield.

WILL VOTE FOR M'KINLEY

Editor Raymer of The Democrat Deserts
His Party.

George Raymer, editor of The Madison Democrat, and the principal stockholder in The Democrat printing company, today announced that he will vote for McKinley. Mr. Raymer has been a prominent democrat for many years. He announces his intention to vote for McKinley and sound money in the following communication to The Wisconsin State Journal.

"To the Editor—My attention has been called to the following from a recent issue of The Journal: 'If any of the editors or owners of The Madison Democrat have any political conviction which they please manifest it by rising.'"

"I have 'risen' and reply that I will vote for McKinley, and this must not be construed into an endorsement of either the republican candidate or platform; but it is my political conviction that the republican party will do a patient, long-suffering and shamefully misgoverned people less harm during the next four years than the democratic party is certain to do if given the opportunity."

GEORGE RAYMER.

BABBITT IS VERY "WILLIN"

Thinks He Would Make a Good Governor
on a Free Silver Basis.

The Milwaukee Sentinel interviewed
Clinton Babbitt, and tells the story
like this:
Clinton Babbitt, when asked if he was a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination said: "I am always with the boys in any good cause, and am with the silver democrats now." Then lowering his voice to one pitch above a whisper, he added: "If they nominate me I will accept, and I will be elected. I know a trick or two in politics, and I'll show it to them if they give me a chance. This is the farmers' year," he added, significantly. "Let me say this: For two years I sat next to Mr. Bryan at table in Washington.
He is not only an eloquent man, but a conservative man."

STEAMERS DODGE ROW BOATS

The River Was Simply Stopped With Craft
Last Night.

At least one hundred row boats lined the river last evening all the way from the up river parks to this city and it kept both Captain Griffith of the Mayflower and Capt. Buchholz of the Columbia busy in warning the pleasure seekers of their danger, while the steamers were making their trips.
The whistles had to be sounded
every minute for fear of running down one of the numerous row boats.
"We have to keep a sharp lookout," remarked Capt. Griffith, "for on several occasions young men having their best girls out for a ride, try to see just how near they can come to the steamer without being struck."

CIVIL SERVICE IN THE ARMY

New Classification Takes Patronage Away
From the Secretary of War

Janesville men who are now employed in the war department at Washington, are under civil service rules. A dispatch from Washington says:

Ten thousand employees of the war department were today classified under the civil service law. Only two exceptions were made. These were the private secretary of Secretary Lamont and Assistant Secretary Doe.
All other employees from the chief clerk down, excepting of course, army officers and enlisted men and a few day laborers, are included in the change. This classification has been effected in pursuance of the president's order of May 6. The number of employees of the department within the scope of the civil service law previous to this new classification was fewer than 2,000, so that the increase is more than five times the number heretofore under that rule. With this new classification in effect the secretary of war will have the control of practically no patronage within his department, as whenever he has need of a laborer, skilled mechanic or clerk, he will make a requisition on the civil service commission to be supplied with some one to perform the work. Of the number placed under the scope of the civil service law of course the greater part are employed outside of the city, 5,000 of them being employed under the chief of engineers and scattered over the country wherever the improvement of rivers and harbors is being prosecuted by the government.
The classification has been made so that men employed only during the summer will not again have to enter the service through the civil service commission, after they have been furloughed during the winter season. It is said that a majority of the employes
in the war department are republicans,
so that the charge of unfairness
through fixing the political complexion of the personnel of that department before extending the protection of the civil service law over it cannot be made.

Big Law Firm Dissolved.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 2.—The dissolution of the partnership of ex-Secretary Don M. Dickinson, Elliott G. Stevenson, ex-chairman of the democratic state central committee, and Mr. Thurbur, former private secretary of the executive mansion, the biggest law firm in Michigan, went into effect Tuesday.

Wanted to Make Sure.

"Wall, Doc," said the old man, "perhaps I'd order not ha' called you. I guess the ol' woman's right 'nough dead, but I wanted to make sure of the thing."

To this day the poor old man cannot understand why the doctor declined his further advances.—Chicago Tribune.

A Better Reason.

Maek—Is it true that Bullion's daughter eloped with his coachman?

Wyld—Yes.

Maek—I suppose Bullion is furious.

Wyld—I should say so. He says he can never get another coachman that will suit him as well.—Brooklyn Life.

An Eloquent Gown.

Mr. Crimsonbeak—What kind of a dress do you call that red affair Mrs. Styles has on, to-day?

Mrs. Crimsonbeak—That's a calling gown.

"Well, goodness knows, it looks loud enough to call."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Old Hunks.

Mrs. Chugwater—Josiah, did you ever notice how common it is for girls to look like their fathers?

Mr. Chugwater—Of course I have. Most of them look like their fathers.

That's why so many girls' faces are their fortunes.—Chicago Tribune.

Generalship.

"Can you give me change for five dollars?" inquired the usually impecunious friend.

"Certainly," was the unguarded answer.

"Then lend me three."—Washington Star.

A motto for working men and women:

"A dollar's worth of dollar for a dollar's worth of work."

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1666—The great fire in London began near the Tower; it continued five days, destroying

13,000 houses, besides churches, etc., or five sixths of the city.

1729—John Howard, philanthropist and prison

reformer, was born at Hackney; died in Russia 1806.

1792—Ferdinand de Lamballe murdered by the mob in the streets of Paris.

1813—The battle of Dresden and mortal wounding of General Jean Victor Moreau.

1870—Surrender of the emperor's army at Sedan;

Napoleon delivered his sword to King

William and surrendered 4,000 officers, 14,

000 wounded and 82,000 fighting men.

1894—The towns of Hinekey, Pokegama and Mission Creek, Mich., destroyed by forest fires; over 450 lives lost and many people injured.

FARM CONFISCATION NEXT.

Farmers cannot afford to overlook

the fact that cheap money is only one of the several doctrines in which

most of the supporters of Bryan believe. One of the objects that many, perhaps a majority of them have in view is the confiscation of real estate.

They hold that no man has a right of absolute ownership in land, but only the right to occupy it in return for the payment of its full rental value in taxes.

The government, they contend, should own all the land, and collect rent for the use of it; and they do not even admit that the present owners are entitled to any compensation for it. Their theory is that all land titles are based on a fiction and a wrong, and hence no reason exists

why their validity should be recognized in any case or in any degree.

This is not now an issue to be sure,

but it could easily become one in the event of a free silver victory. The elements that are today favoring the repudiation of debts and the destruction of one-half of the value of bank deposits, insurance policies and the wages of labor would not hesitate to extend their policy of spoliation to the land owners. They are carrying on a crusade against property, and it is not to be supposed that they attach any more sacredness to one form of property than another.

IN THE SHADOW.

The Chicago ticket is the only barrier between the country and prosperity, and as the ticket's prospects darken the financial situation will brighten.

About two weeks after the election of William McKinley as president of the United States—an event which may be safely set down for the third of next November—the factories which are now shutting down in fear of the silver craze will resume work, and the railroads which are now reducing their number of employees will re-employ their men. The shadow will last but a few months, and then it will be lifted, and the silver craze will be remembered only as a disturbing dream.

The new feature about this campaign is that every state is full of people who have made up their minds to let their politics go to the winds this fall and fight for their business and their living. They have concluded that it is better to be a Republican fed than a democrat hungry; it is better to be a republican employed at good wages than a democrat

out of a job.

Gabe Bouck is not fond of leading folorn hopes. Besides his nomination for governor might hamper him in his merry controversy with General

Bragg. When a man goes after

General Bragg he usually wants both hands free.

Considering the amount of fuss that was made last spring about the infamous republican gerrymander, there has been a deep and comprehensive silence in the democratic camp of late.

Chairman Peck will be allowed to play if he behaves, despite the lateness of his conversion to free silver.

Why not do as well by Chairman Mor-rie?

It is getting so that even the conversion of a democrat to the Bryan

cause is hailed with joy by the free

silver leaders.

REPUBLICANS MEET ON FRIDAY NIGHT

CAPTAIN PLINY NORCROSS WILL MAKE THE SPEECH

Rally Will Be Held In Concordia Hall—
Good Music Will Be Provided, and Other Speakers Will Be Heard—Walter Houghton's Free Silver Experience Down In Chili.

A discussion of the issues of the campaign by Captain Pliny Norcross will be a feature of the Republican League club meeting next Friday evening. Captain Norcross has made a thorough survey of the situation and will make a carefully-considered address—a speech full of sound common sense.

The meeting will be held in Concordia hall, over Lowell's store and there will be accommodations for nearly a thousand people.

President W. G. Wheeler of the club announced today that several short speeches would be made by well known republicans and that there would be good music. The by-laws of the club will also be read and adopted.

The Y. M. C. A. band and a quartette organized by E. O. Kimberley, will furnish the music.

Boughton and Free Silver.

The Rock county farmer, or the Janesville workman who wants to know something about the condition of the wage earner in free silver countries, should spend a few moments in conversation with ex-Police Officer Walter P. Houghton, of this city.

He can give his hearers more substantial facts in an hour, than they will gather from reading or listening to public speakers, in a month.

Mr. Houghton has traveled extensively, and is a close observer. He talks interestingly, of the countries he has visited, and the people he has seen.

For six months he was a resident of Chili—a free silver country—and knows whereof he speaks when he predicts that free silver will kill any nation.

Money Was Worthless.

Mr. Houghton was in Chili at the time of the war with Peru in 1879 and 1880 and from 1886 to 1892, was engaged as engineer on one of the railroads operated by Colonel North, the "Nitrate King." His contract, at that time, provided that his wages should be payable in gold in spite of the fact that he was working in a free silver country. Mr. Houghton now has this contract in safe keeping at his South Main street home in this city. He says that after the war, an intimate friend of his was the possessor of $75,000 in hard earned cash, but after the war, his $75,000 was worth no more than common paper, for the simple reason that the government did not maintain the value of its "free silver money."

Mr. Houghton puts his stamp of disapproval on the free silver theory, from a knowledge of the facts, and as the result of his own personal experience. Having "gone through the mill" once, he declines to be ground up again, and is therefore opposed to the sixteen-to-one movement.

CUPIDS BONDS ARE FORGED.

De Pay-Drummond.

The wedding of Marion Jeannette Drummond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Drummond, to Clarence E. De Pay, of Chicago, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, southeast corner of Cornelia and Glen streets, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, the Rev. E. H. Pence, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. As a prelude to the ceremony, Miss Cora Anderson sang Reginald DeKoven's "O Promise Me," delightfully.

After this happy prelude the bride and groom, attended by Miss Emma Gregory, of Chicago, as bridesmaid and Charles Gaylord, also of Chicago, as groomsmen, took their positions beneath a beautifully wrought floral canopy and the words were spoken which render to Mr. and Mrs. DePay realization in fulfillment of DeKoven's theme. The affair was delightfully informal.

Mrs. DePay is a daughter of Janesville, and possesses all the factors in the sum of human happiness, as well as a host of friends. Mr. DePay is professor of mechanical arts in the Lewis Institute, Chicago, and a graduate of Michigan University.

After partaking of delicious refreshments, and receiving hearty congratulations the happy couple departed on a brief eastern tour, after which they will make their permanent residence in Chicago.

There were many beautiful presents in the guise of souvenirs of the event.

Seville-Hayner.

The Rev. Dr. Sabin Halsey spoke the words last evening that united as husband and wife, Miss Lottie M. Hayner and Frank Seville. The ceremony was performed at the Court Street M. E. church parsonage, after which the happy couple left for their future home in Evansville. The bride resides near this city and the groom is a well known cigar maker at Evansville.

WORKMEN LOSE CASH BECAUSE OF SILVER

TWO BIG PLANTS DARE NOT START UP NOW.

Janesville Machine Company Will
"Wait a Bit" and the Cotton Company Will Follow Suit—Fear the Panic That Will Come With Worthless "Cheap Money."

Uncertainty is all that keeps the big factory of the Janesville Machine Company from running with a full force of hands.

But the company will not manufacture goods on a gold basis, and take their pay in silver-standard money.

The managers are far-sighted business men, and they scent danger in the air. Consequently, the men are still idle, and the machinery stilled.

This, The Gazette has on the very best of authority, is the reason that the plant has not resumed business.

When the big factory shut down some time ago, quite extensive repairs were made, and the directors planned to re-open on a larger scale. The entire plant was gone over, and all machinery and appliances were put in apple pie order. The plant is in better condition to handle a large volume of business than ever. But—

"Can we manufacture goods at a cost of one hundred cents on the dollar, and sell the output on the basis of fifty-three cents on the dollar?"

That question then presented itself, and as the result it was decided to "wait a bit" before beginning operations.

Cotton Manufacturers Wait Too.

The men who work in that big shop are not slow to realize the fact that the fear of free silver is costing them money, and, as one of them said today, if the mere chance of the success of the free coinage crusade was enough to curtail their income, what would free coinage itself do?

The Janesville Cotton Company, the Gazette can state on good authority, is waiting for the same reason. The idea of starting up had been fully discussed, it is said, and the management had considered the matter very favorably. But the same reasoning, "we cannot make goods on one basis and sell them on another," put an end to all plans of that nature.

The fact that these two plants dare not start up for fear of panic and disaster, tells its own story, and the wage earners who are interested are not slow to realize the fact.

Plenty of fifty cent dollars wouldn't help men who are out of work, and Janesville artisans know it full well. These local cases of the effect of the free silver crusade are enough to open the eyes of the people, and they fully realize the force of Major McKinley's statement, "we should open the mills; not the mints."

WARD CAUCUSES ARE CALLED.

The Senatorial Primaries Will Be Held Tuesday Evening Next.

Republican electors of the city of Janesville will meet in the several wards on Tuesday evening, September 2, at 7:30 o'clock, to name delegates to the senatorial and assembly conventions, and to transact such other business as properly may come before the meetings. The places of holding the caucuses in the several wards will be:

First ward—West side engine house.

Second ward—East side engine house.

Third ward—Court house.

Fourth ward—Council chamber.

Fifth ward—Polling place.

By ORDER OF COMMITTEES.

A SUCCESSFUL OPENING HELD

Miss Servatius' Ladies' Furnishing Goods Store Open to the Public

The ladies of Janesville will hereafter have at their disposal a stock of goods such as the city has never before seen—in an exclusive ladies' furnishing store. As announced, the doors were opened for the commencement of business this morning, at the store formerly occupied by Weisend, in the Phoenix block, and ladies have flocked to the establishment all day. The decorations throughout have called forth much praise, and the tasteful appearance of the goods displayed gives a very pleasing impression on entering.

Everything necessary to ladies' dress will be carried in stock, such as hosiery, underwear, kid gloves, corsets, veiling and notions of all kinds. A most complete assortment of all these goods will always be kept, and ladies' personal tastes will be sought in the buying of stock.

A very good idea adopted is the trying on of kid gloves in the store, so that no mistake as to size and shaping of the glove is possible.

Miss Servatius is thoroughly capable, having conducted the same line of business most successfully for some time past. This evening Professor Thompson's orchestra will render a number of selections and souvenirs will be presented to all visitors.

Matting Sale For Saturday.

We expect to startle the natives, so to speak, on the subject of mattings for Saturday. Forty full rolls will be closed out that day at 50 cents on the dollar, exactly half price, the sale to last but one day, and without doubt the entire lot will go during that day. We have talked it up a few days in advance so that everybody may have an opportunity of looking up their supply of matting and avail themselves of a chance such as does not make its appearance many times during the year. 20c mattings will be sold at 10 cents, and so on down the list as far as the 50c line, they all go at the half price figure. Don't forget, the day, Saturday, September 5. Bort, Bailey & Co.

For the next five years Athletic Park will be known as the Y. M. C. A. Athletic Field. Papers were drawn up this morning leasing the park for a term of three years with the privileges of five at an annual rental of $75.

The contract for the painting of the grand stand will be let this week, and on the rear wall will be printed: "Y. M. C. A. Athletic Field." A new base ball diamond and a tennis court will be mapped out. It is also proposed to have a skating rink and polo games at the park this winter.

LITERARY EVENT OF THE SEASON

Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. Prof. Cohahn will illustrate the "Natural Method" of Teaching German and French.

Judging from the interest manifested by our literary people, Prof. Cohahn will have a large audience at his free illustrative lecture at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. The lecture will not be one of the dry kind; it will be short, and the principal part of the evening will be devoted to a practical illustration of the method he uses. This promises to be not only interesting but highly entertaining. Announcements pertaining to the German and French courses will be made tonight.

It Makes a Difference.

"As a new woman," he said, "I suppose you will object to the wedding ring as a symbol of man's tyranny?" "Of course I shall," she replied. "Under no circumstances would I consent to wear such a thing. It is not essential to a marriage, and it stands for all that is objectionable in the marriage relation."

"And on the same theory," he continued, "I suppose you will refuse to wear an engagement ring also?" "Well—no," she answered slowly and thoughtfully. "That's a very different matter."

"But, theoretically it—"

"There is no use arguing," she interrupted. "I don't care what it is theoretically. Practically it is very often a diamond, while the wedding ring is only plain gold, and that makes all the difference in the world."—Chicago Post.

Satisfaction.

RAREST BOOK ON EARTH.

A Find Which Will Thrill Bibliomaniacs' Souls.

Bibliomaniacs in all parts of the world will be delighted to learn that a copy of Bonaventure's "Speculum Vite Christi," a rare and precious Caxton, has been discovered by Mr. William May, the public librarian at Birkenhead, across the Mersey from Liverpool, says the New York World. Mr. May was recently rummaging through a lot of discarded books from a lawyer's library. He was startled to find among them an old black-letter volume attached to another aged work. At first he thought that he had found simply a specimen of Caxton's print. Subsequently he discovered that he had come upon an even greater rarity than he had imagined. For several days Mr. May was inclined to doubt that the book he had found was really priceless. After consulting many authorities, however, he found that he had in his possession a copy of Bonaventure's "Speculum Vite Christi," as it is spelled in the original. This edition was printed by Wynkyn de Worde in 1494, the year in which he returned to the use of Caxton's types. Its exceptional rarity consists in fact that it is the only edition in which Caxton's No. 7 type was ever used, the type in this case being used for the side notes. There is only one other copy of this precious book known to be in existence, according to the Messrs. Blades & Duff, the great authorities on Caxtoniana. This copy is owned by the earl of Leicester. The earl is so careful of the book that he has never put it on exhibition, even refusing to send it to the great Caxton exhibition of 1877. He has not allowed experts to examine it. Among the greatest treasures of the archbishop's library at Lambeth there are four solitary leaves from this book that are guarded as among the most valuable relics of early printing. From these Mr. Gordon Duff was obliged to take his examples for his recently published "Fac-Similes of Early English Printing."

For many years the No. 7 type was a subject of dispute among the bibliomaniacs. Eventually the question was settled to the satisfaction of all experts by means of a copy of an Indulgence preserved at the Dublin university conjointly with the Lambeth leaves. Although not the most valuable book in the world, Mr. May's treasure may be considered practically the rarest, there being only two copies in existence. In spite of this fact, and the great money value connected with the copy found at Birkenhead, the volume had been used as a scrap-book for children. It is illustrated with a large number of beautiful Caxton woodcuts, which had been used to amuse babies instead of thrilling bibliomaniacs.

PARISIAN BICYCLE STOCKINGS

College Colors and Startling Designs—Brilliant and Gaudy Effects.

Kaleidoscopic effects in bicycle stockings are the order of the day, says the New York World. The shops are full of hose fearfully and wonderfully made and bearing on their vivid surfaces the most exciting designs and scenes.

The plain reds and blues and greens which flashed along the boulevard but a month ago are seen no more. They have given place to bright crimson and yellow affairs embroidered in contrasting shades and embellished with designs which range from the wearer's monogram to exciting collisions on the wheel. Silk hose are, of course, the most effective and, one need not add, the most expensive. Five dollars is a small price for a pair of the latest Parisian importations. Stripes and checks are among the more modest designs. Red, white and blue hose are offered to patriotic young women and, of course, the college stocking is out in large numbers. The Princeton colors, orange and black, are among the most popular. The full beauty of these hose is supposed to be obscured by modest skirts and high boots, but many of the knickerbockered women riders who filled the Long island and Staten island roads last Sunday had apparently forgotten this. Young men, too, are wearing some astonishing hose with their bicycle suits. Brilliant colors and involved patterns are seen, though to their everlasting credit be it said the hose of male bicyclists are less conspicuous than those of young women who accompany them. Young men run largely to the college colors of Yale, Harvard and Princeton.

An Apology.

A man who has the reputation for being very careless as to his toilet was elected town clerk in one of the small towns in this state some time ago and the local paper thought it would be a good joke to announce that—

"Mr. Makeup will wash himself before he assumes the office of town clerk."

On reading the notice Mr. Makeup was furious and demanded a retraction, which the paper accordingly made the following day in this fashion:

"Mr. Makeup requests us to deny that he will wash himself before he assumes the office of town clerk."

And still Mr. Makeup was not pleased. How hard it is to satisfy some people!—Our Girls and Boys.

Mutual Confidence.

The Foudroyant, that gallant old frigate which is famous as Nelson's flagship, will be seen in American ports this fall, for she has been rescued from the German ship breakers, thoroughly overhauled and is now as trim and taut as when she swept the Mediterranean in 1799. She was built for the special service of flagship and had it not been

The big, hearty, healthy man is a continual irritant to his dyspeptic friend. Constipation is the root of nine-tenths of the sickness of men, and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working as hard as she can to throw off impurities, and to force out poisonous refuse matter. When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any trouble. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way. There is nothing violent about their action, and yet it is just as certain as if it were twice as violent. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred derangements. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who tries to sell you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy medicine.

Advertising what you have not got or what you don't do is worse than not advertising at all. You can't well be too careful about this. Make your ads. strictly true in letter and in spirit. I believe that the majority of business men do this now, but as it is the most important thing about advertising, it will bear repeating and reiterating.

Republican national convention. It is understood that Secretary Carlisle has forwarded a plank here for adoption, but the men who are reputed to stand closest to the administration deny that Mr. Carlisle has written a plank.

This is a gilt-edged convention so far as the personnel of the delegates is concerned. Every man who has arrived thus far has a prosperous look, is well dressed, and seems to have plenty of money in his pocket. The convention is a body of representative men of affairs, a majority of them under the middle age. It is made up of business men who have large interests at stake, of well-known lawyers, many financiers of national fame, bankers who stand high in their respective sections of the country, and merchants of considerable means.

Col. John I. Fellows of New York said that he did not think Mr. Cleveland was in any sense a candidate.

Gold Men May Fuse in the South.
Washington, Sept. 2.—Rumors of fusion between the gold democrats and republicans in several states are afloat, and Chairman Hanna is said to favor the withdrawal of the republican electors in Louisiana and Florida, where the gold democrats have developed considerable strength. Fusion may also be agreed upon in Texas and Alabama, as Chairman Hanna is aware that the conditions in the four states named would not permit republican electors to be elected. For that reason he may be willing to let the gold democrats manage the campaign.

Beatrice (Neb.) Banks Fail.
Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 2.—The First National bank, the oldest banking establishment in this city, closed its doors Tuesday, carrying with it the Beatrice Savings bank. The failure is due to the successive crop failures and the gradual withdrawal of cash. The assets are ample to meet all liabilities.

Mistake About the "Poet Scout."
Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 2.—The Capt. "Jack" Crawford who was killed Monday in the Swauk mining district in the Cascade mountains is not the "poet scout," as was first reported. The dead miner had been a scout, like his namesake, but was not a famous poet.

Italian Boats Ordered.
Rome, Sept. 2.—The Opinione announces that King Humbert has signed a decree authorizing the re-establishment of an Italian squadron in South American waters. It is stated that the squadron will include three cruisers and a dispatch vessel.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played in the National League, Yesterday.

Yesterday the Baltimores strengthened their hold on first place and Cincinnati continued to lose. Cleveland won and lost. There is every indication that Baltimore-Cleveland-Cincinnati-Chicago will be the order at the finish. Yesterday's scores:
